HERE'S OUR POP-GUN for this week.
Read it.

THE SQUIRT-GUN is loaded with good ammunition this week.

LAST week the thermometer fell from 93 degrees down to 74 in one day and night.

MR. H. D. TAYLOR, and lady of this place are spending a few days at the Grayson Springs.

THIS community was visited by several refreshing showers of rain last week, which were very much needed.

COL. WALLACE GRUELLE, editor of the Owensboro Monitor, spent a day or two in town this week.

MISS LUCY HARDING, of Murray, Calloway county, Ky., is visiting the family of Hon. E. D. Walker, of this city.

MASTER ARTHUR FORD, of Owensboro, Ky., is visiting his friend and former schoolmate, Gross B. Williams, of this place.

FOR RENT.—The house known as Armstrong's carpenter shop. Apply to E. R. Murrell, Receiver Ohio Circuit Court.

THE Grayson Journal says that at a Fair given by the Catholics of this county on the 19th and 20th inst., $1-039.60 was realized for their church.
Good.

Mrs. MALCOLM MCINTYRE, who has been visiting relatives in Davies county, for several weeks past, returned home last Thursday.

A GREAT many people will be in town next Monday at the election, and to all we extend an invitation to visit our office, and, if convenient, subscribe for the HERALD.

EARLY apples have already made their appearance in our town, and the last week or two they have been unloaded by the bushel. Ohio county is hard to get away with on fine fruit.

QUITE a destructive fire broke out in Caneyville, Grayson county, last Thursday, which resulted in the burning of two dwellings in the Northern portion of that city. Causes of the fire unknown.

THE heavy storm and rain last Saturday damaged the corn and tobacco crops considerably in some portions of the county. The corn was damaged by being blown down or broken off and tobacco by trees and brush falling down on it.

SOME of our young ladies and gentlemen contemplate getting up another entertainment for benefit of the M. E.
Church South. We are confident that the people will show their hearty approval of this charitable project by attending.

THAT prince of good fellows, Harry Bridge, who represents the popular grocery firm of Carson, Daniel & Co., Louisville, was in town last week.
Harry is a jovial good fellow, and our merchants are always glad to see him.

MR. CLAYTON WOODWARD, son of Mr. Stephen Woodward candidate for sheriff, had a horse killed by lightning last Saturday. Goodman had ought to be round and sold Mr. W. a lightning rod for his horse.

DONT FAIL.—We want the Sheriff at each election to keep a true statement of the polls at the close next Monday evening and bring to us Tuesday, so that our next issue will contain the exact result of the election. Do this and we will send each of you a copy of the paper so that you can preserve the vote.

An Incident of the Show.

A man hailing from the sacred precincts of Cool Spring church, in this county, was in attendance at the big show Wednesday last. To say he was pleased with the performance, don't begin to express it. He was charmed and entranced. The Japanese family did the work for him.
The balancing, top spinning and acrobatic feats &c., or something else having a very potent power, bewildered his brain and after the show was over he began a series of performances which wound up by retiring to rest in the shades of a huge oak in the flats near Mr. Remus Gibson's. When he awoke he found in splendor o'er the earth and our rural friend arose from his couch and prepared to arrange his usual morning toilet when low and behold he found out where he was and that he was minus drawers, pants, boots, socks and hat. Here he was in a pretty pickle, his money all gone, no clothes and no way to go anywhere save through a dense forest on the one hand in which he feared he would be lost, and the town streets on the other and the inhabitants all astir. He chose the latter and as he passed by a certain habitation the dogs were attracted by the peculiar appearance of his dress and disputed his passage. The good lady of the house went out, drove the dogs off and when she returned remarked to her husband that the man who passed had on a very light pair of flesh colored linen pants. He made his way to a clothing store without further trouble and with the aid of a friend he procured a new suit and was again happy but thinks he will quit the show business. We don't think it right and proper to give his name, but not amies to give the initials so the boys can guess at who it is. The first two letters of his name are George Cox. Now boys see if you can guess who it was.

James H. Likens was arrested Thursday evening charged with the theft and was placed to board at "Castle Wise," but subsequently he gave bond for his appearance on Monday, at which time the trial was postponed until today.

LITTLE HENRY WILLIAMS, son of Mr. Wm. H. Williams, of this place, fell from an apple tree last Friday morning and broke both his arms just above the wrists. Drs. Pendleton and Griffin, were immediately summoned who soon set the broken bones. The little fellow is doing as well as could be expected.

THE Hartford House is the gayest hotel in Kentucky. They have had a "Ball" there almost every night for several months past, and frequently the "Ball" is kept up nearly all night but the boarders have gotten used to it and their slumbers are not disturbed.
This is really true.

WE received a communication from "Patrons" too late for this issue. It long and we have not the force to set it up in time, nor space for it to occupy.
We regret it did not come to hand sooner. We do not refuse to publish it because of Mr. Woodward's contemptible reference to us last Saturday, but suppose of course, that Mr.
Woodward did not care, as he would not like to have any thing in his favor shot out of a squirt gun as he was pleased to call our paper.

It makes no difference whether Phillips or Woodward is elected Sheriff next Monday, I will start East Tuesday for a full line of goods, which I will buy for cash and at the lowest price, and will sell them the same way.
Any article in my house can now be bought for cost, until the new goods arrive. Avail yourself of this opportunity. E. SMALL.

OTTO has the champion sagacious dog. At all times very savage on the approach of strangers he recently astonished the community by joyously welcoming a man in a light wagon who stayed up at the hitching-post before the house. The dog had never seen the man before but something in the light wagon put him on his good behavior.
It was a "Light-Running Domestic" and the man a "Domestic" agent.

MR. WM. KING, sent to our office an ear of corn grown in his garden which is made up of a combination of about thirty smaller ears all growing in a bunch together. It is quite a curiosity. Call and see it.

FIRE.—The house belonging to Dr.
W. J. Berry, occupied by Pat Murphy, was consumed by fire Monday night.
Murphy saved most all his furniture.
No insurance.

STILL ANOTHER "DODGE"—Woodward men are promising the colored voters that if they will vote for Woodward that after the election they will form a colored grange and take them into the order.

Letter From Rosine.

ROSEINE, July 29, 1876.
Editor Herald.

Thinking that you would like to hear from this section since the excitement attendant upon the terrible tragedy here on the 14th inst. has somewhat abated, I have concluded to drop you a few lines, to let you know that the Sheriff's race is getting pretty warm with us as the time is drawing near when we have to determine who shall collect our debts and taxes from us for the next two years. Well we straight out republicans were very sorry that the delicate condition of Mr. Park's health would not admit of his continuing on the track, but have finally concluded that like Col.
O. P. Johnson, Geo. C. Wedding and other trusted leaders, we would rather see Mr. Phillips, a straight out and candid political adversary elected to office than Mr. Woodward, who though in Hartford on the evening in which we held our convention to nominate delegates to the Louisville convention, did not come into the convention. We suppose his Democratic deputies Messrs. Hendricks and Ellis, who we understand were both warmly "Southern rights" in sympathy had forbid him polluting himself in any such manner. Well, we want to know a man's position when we vote for him, and when we vote for Phillips, we know that we may expect the Sheriff's office to be under the control of Democrats during his term if elected, and by voting for Woodward we have a half democratic sheriff-alty and the other half, well, we don't know what, but take the whole Woodward ticket and it is without sex gender, or color, or if it has color it is a pie-bald, but as for sex it is clearly hermaphrodite. We wish none of it, and want the gentleman, who is reported to have sworn so cleverly in the republican convention on 3d inst., and his friends to understand that we don't intend to be sold out into the support of the grand combination ticket of Woodward, Ellis, Gilstrap, Hendricks and company. Oh, no, never!
STRAIGHT OUT.

DAVIES COUNTY ASSOCIATION.
This body will convene with the Baptist Church at Mt. Carmel in Buford, Ohio County, Ky., August 8th, 1876, at 10 o'clock, A. M., immediately on the Owensboro and Hartford road about 10 miles from the latter place, where the most hospitable provisions will be made for the entertainment of all who wish to attend.

Arrangements have been consummated with the E. O. & N. R. R. to pass both delegates and visitors at half fare upon the condition, that all those desiring to attend shall pay full fare going will be returned free by presenting a certified statement from the Secretary of the meeting, of having been in attendance.

The church has made arrangements for conveying all such delegates and visitors from Riley's Station, as follows viz: They will meet the train coming from the Owensboro junction, on Monday evening August 7th, and the train coming out from Owensboro Tuesday morning August 8th, and transfer the delegates &c., from the station to the church, and after the final adjournment, return them to the station. Let it be remembered that the church only proposes meeting the two above trains designated, acting upon the idea that all those wishing to attend should be present at the introductory services.

Many distinguished Ministers from abroad, besides the Ministers of the body, are expected to be present, which will invest the occasion with special and peculiar interest.

J. S. COLEMAN,
Moderator of Association and Pastor of Church.

Malarial Regions.
The inhabitants of malarial districts, who are constantly breathing an impure and poisoned atmosphere are subject to lingering and malignant and fatal diseases, such as Ague, Typhoid Fever, and Yellow Fever and Asiatic Cholera. In many sections of the western country almost every one is subject to chills and fever, an ailment most difficult to cure. The unhealthy effects of living in such miasmatic sections are destroyed by the free use of DR. RADCLIFF'S SEVEN SEALS OR GOLDEN WONDER. This standard remedy is unequalled for the prevention and cure of the class of diseases prevalent in low and marshy lands, and being a purely vegetable preparation; can be used in any quantity without danger to the system.

MR. JOHN R. McDOWELL, living five miles from town brought to us a few days ago a curiosity in the form of a rock. It is about six inches in length and an inch and a half in diameter and looks as if it had once been a portion of a snake.

From Bell's Store Precinct.

BELL'S STORE PRECINCT,
July 31, 1876.
Editor Herald.

I understand that Mr. Woodward is appealing to the Good Templars of the county to vote for him for Sheriff in preference to Mr. Phillips, as he is a Good Templar and they ought to support true temperance men in preference to those who do not belong to the order.

Mr. Woodward made this appeal in 1872 against Mr. Smith and on the day of the election there was more Woodward whisky around than any other kind.

In 1874 they voted, on "Local Option" in this precinct which is Mr.
Woodward's voting place and after taking strong grounds in favor of it clear up to the election, when he saw it was unpopular he stood off and failed to vote at all. At that same election Mr. McIntyre and Mr. Morton were candidates for clerk and the whisky question was made the main issue between them, Mr. Morton favoring Local Option and Mr. McIntyre opposing and yet, Mr. Woodward voted for Mr. McIntyre.

Now what claims has Mr. Woodward on Good Templars or temperance men.
GOOD TEMPLAR.

If you want to get your money back, go to Thomas S. Duke's and buy your Brides, Saddles and Harness.

Local Notice.
We visited E. A. Bunch's steam saw mill a few days since, and for dispatch of workmanship and proficiency in sawing, we must say Mr. Bunch stands first on the list of our acquaintances. The mill is situated half a mile east of Millwood, and Mr. Bunch will be happy to show any one through his works and if work is required he will do it as reasonable as any man in the State.

Election Notice.
By virtue of an order of the Ohio County court made at its July term 1876, there will be a poll opened in District No. 3, Ohio county, Ky., on the first Monday in August next, to elect expired term of T. S. Bennett, re-

Give Your Name.
We must again request persons who send us communications to give us their true name. Every week we receive communications without any name. We will publish any fictitious name you may send us, but we want your real name, as an evidence of good faith. All communications received not signed by some responsible party, will go to the waste basket certain. We never will publish any communications without knowing the real name of the writer.

A Popular History of the United States.
We are now offering for sale this valuable work in Ohio and Muhlenburg counties. The author of this valuable work is Prof. J. C. Ridpath.
This interesting history is now ready for sale and will be furnished to subscribers at $3.00 and $4.50 per copy, according to style of binding. It is beautifully illustrated with maps, charts, portraits and diagrams, and contains 670 pages. As there are several works inferior to this being sold over the county, we would warn those wishing to buy a history to be careful and buy none except Ridpath's.
We expect to canvass the above counties with the prospectus of this great work and will deliver the same to subscribers about the first of September next.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
An old physician, retired from active practice, having placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple Vegetable Remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a Positive and Radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motivation, and a conscientious desire to relieve human suffering, he will send (free of charge) to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Sent by return mail with addressing with
